Zenith approves Federation Alternative Investments II (F2)

Leading investment research house Zenith Investment Partners has awarded Federation Asset Management's private equity fund, Federation Alternative Investments II, an 'approved' rating, citing the high calibre and extensive experience of the firm's principals.

Zenith says Federation is "a quality asset management firm" and notes Federation's ability to "identify the most attractive opportunities" across its business.

"Zenith maintains a high opinion of Federation's investment capabilities" the report reads.

"Zenith considers Federation's Chief Executive Cameron Brownjohn to be a high calibre investment professional with extensive experience in acquiring companies and implementing value creation strategies" the report continues.

Federation Alternative Investments II (F2) is Federation's flagship fund for retail and wholesale investors, providing access to investment grade private equity opportunities otherwise reserved for institutional clients.

"F2's investment mandate is consistent with the Federation team's realised track record of 23% annual returns on over $4 billion of exits since 2011; akin to trebling our investors' capital every five years," adds Brownjohn.

"F2 offers our investors access to a performing, diversified, mature portfolio of private equity investments, all with the benefit of monthly liquidity should their circumstances change unexpectedly," he says.
